

Types of Alien Abductions

Chance Encounter

This takes place usually during a UFO landing or close encounter. A human subject is in the UFO or aliens proximity and is abducted, sometimes voluntarily and then returned, sometimes rejected.

Recurring abductions

A human subject reports multiple abductions throughout his or her life.

Multigenerational Abduction

A human subject is abducted as a child, observe hybrid children as adults, and his or her parents may have been abducted as if the aliens are following a lineage or a genealogical tree.

MILAB (Military Abduction)

Some people claim to be abducted by the military and taken to an undisclosed location for examination. These abductions are described as more crude, sometime mimicking real alien abductions.
